

INTERNATIONAL MASTER IN EUROPEAN REGIONAL INTEGRATION

@ ASIA-EUROPE INSTITUTE,
UNIVERSITI MALAYA

The International Master in European Regional Integration (IMERI) of the Asia-Europe Institute (AEI), Universiti Malaya is a one-year, full coursework postgraduate programme which is conducted on a modular basis.

The unique feature of IMERI lies in providing a blend of insiders' perspective in an institute 'outside of Europe' as it draws two-third of faculty members from Europe. Alongside providing an in-depth understanding on Europe and the European Union through teaching a broad range of topics on history, society, politico-security and economic issues, it aims to facilitate greater understanding of discourse on regionalism by offering elective courses on ASEAN, which are taught by well-known experts from Asia.

Programme Duration:

- Minimum – 2 semesters + 1 special semester
- Maximum – 8 semesters

Semester Intake:

- Semester 1 (October) and Semester 2 (March) of the academic year.

Mode of Study:

- Coursework (full time)
